

CANDOR INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2025
Delegate Liability and Consent Form

Candor Model United Nations (CANMUN) is scheduled to take place on the 10th and 11th of October, 2025 at Candor International School, Bengaluru. For the safety of all participants and smooth running of the Conference, some rules have been established. Failure to adhere to the following will result in immediate expulsion from the conference.

CAMPUS COURTESY

Students are requested to carry identification proof (Aadhar Card/ School ID) to be shown during registration. Misbehaviour in the hallways, unnecessary noise, roughhousing, throwing objects, accessing prohibited areas of the campus, and/or other unruly behaviour will not be accepted. Damages to property intentionally or otherwise will be borne by the responsible delegate. Participants who raise false fire alarms will be subject to strict disciplinary action. The conference and management of the school reserve the right to expel delegates from the conference, and ban them from further participation, for any such actions that threaten the safety of others present. Kindly note that the school campus is under CCTV surveillance at all times.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All delegates must follow a proper code of conduct at all times. Usage of any vulgar/offensive language will result in consequences. Usage of discriminatory language/action insulting any delegate's individuality, race, sex, religion, caste, and upbringing is unacceptable. Sexual and verbal abuse will result in severe action being taken against the concerned delegate. Faculty Advisors of participating schools must be concerned with the safety and conduct of their delegates. They must assist the delegates to comply with the rules of the conference.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty at the Conference is highly expected of all delegates and International Press Corps Members. In the event of misuse of copyrighted material or use of artificial intelligence, necessary action will be taken. The conference has a strict policy against plagiarism and the use of generative artificial intelligence tools (e.g., ChatGPT, Grok), unless explicitly authorized by the Executive Board.

ALCOHOL, DRUG, AND SMOKING POLICY

Consumption/possession of alcohol and drugs will not be acceptable under any circumstances. Any participant found to unlawfully possess or consume alcohol and drugs will be expelled from the conference. Smoking is strictly prohibited and will result in expulsion. There will be security checks on both the days of the conference.

VALUABLES

Participants are responsible for the valuables/gadgets that they may bring along with them. The conference will not be held responsible for any damage or loss of items / valuables during the entire course of events. If any lost item is recovered by the CANMUN team, it shall be securely held and returned upon verification of ownership.

DRESS CODE

All delegates are expected to arrive at the conference on Day 1 (10th October) in Western formal attire. All delegates are expected to arrive at the conference on Day 2 (11th October) in Indian Traditional or Western Formal attire. Delegates of the AIPPM committee are permitted to wear Indian Traditional attire on both days of the conference. Skirts and dresses must be of knee length. If a participant is to wear a skirt or dress above knee length, they must wear stockings underneath the clothing. All clothing must be appropriate for an academic and educational setting. All delegates must dress in a manner that respects cultural sensitivities and maintains decorum. Casual clothing will not be encouraged during the conference. Any delegate who fails to adhere to the dress code will be excluded from participating in the conference. Participants must wear the identity cards provided with the delegate kit at all times to ensure safety.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEO

By appearing at the conference and signing the liability release form, the participant agrees to be photographed, videotaped and/or interviewed and also authorize CANMUN and Candor International School to use such media for promotional, educational, or archival purposes, without further consent or compensation.

EXPULSION FROM THE CONFERENCE

The Secretariat has the right to expel any participant from the conference if they believe that the individual has violated any rule in the aforementioned code of conduct. Expulsion will take immediate effect from the time the order is issued. All conference registration materials (i.e. conference ID cards and placards) must be surrendered upon expulsion.

By signing this liability form, the participant agrees to abide by the rules mentioned above. Rules will be strictly enforced by the CANMUN team alongside the venue staff.

Every student participating in CANMUN must sign and return a printed copy of this form before the conference. The forms must be submitted on 10th of October, 2025 at the registration desks. Forms must contain a signature from a parent/legal guardian without fail. Without a complete release form, Students or faculty advisors will not be permitted to register at the conference, and will thus be unable to participate in any conference activities.

I, the parent of undersigned participant hereby indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by law, CANMUN ("Candor Model United Nations Conference"), including Candor International School, its staff, volunteers, and faculty members from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, costs, or obligations including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and expenses, which may arise out of my ward's traveling to, participating in, or returning from Candor Model United Nations. I declare that I have read, understood these rules, and my ward will adhere to the rules of Candor Model United Nations 2025, to the applicable laws in force at the conference location. I also declare that my ward will adhere to any additional rules promulgated by Candor Model United Nations before and during the conference, including but not limited to those published in the conference handbook and those announced by faculty advisors. I understand that refunds or other consideration will not be granted for any reason except as provided for by Candor Model United Nations policy and procedure and agree that my ward may be expelled from the conference at any time for violating this agreement with no expectation of refund. I acknowledge that refunds or compensation of the delegate fees will not be issued under any circumstances, including but not limited to weather disruptions, illness, or travel delays.
